PRICE FIVE CENTS

WILL PETITION MR. TAFT TO WITHDRAW

Republican Office Holders and Candidates Realize His Name Means Defeat

S NATION-WIDE MOVEMENT

Any Ground Is Gained, May Also Ask Roosevelt to Step Aside for Compromise

WASHINGTON, July 8.—A nationwide movement to petition President Taft to withdraw as the Republican presidential candidate is being backed by a large number of Republican office holders who feel that they face defeat in November unless the breach in the party can be healed.

These men include members of congress, members of state legislatures, which will elect senators; state and county office holders and party candidates. If the movement succeeds in gaining any volume, it is said these same men may ask Roosevelt to withdraw as a prospective candidate for an independent nomination and to permit compromise selection of some man agreeable to both factions of the party.

It is the desire of the promoters of the scheme that a decision be reached before August 5, when the Roosevelt people plan to hold a convention in Chicago.

Circulation Starts Within Week

The circulation of petitions, it was declared today, would start within a week. It was said the movement would begin spontaneously in every state. The organizers are now circulating blank forms of petitions and appointing supervisors who in turn will engage canvassers to solicit the signatures of Republicans.

The movement is in the hands of several well-known members of congress. They are being aided by many extreme Roosevelt Republicans. The president of the national progressive organization in the movement has been sought and it was stated today that Senator Dixon's organization was willing to cooperate.

In the circulation of anti-Taft petitions an effort will be made to get them signed by people who have stood by the president as well as citizens who have occupied neutral grounds. There will be no special effort to get Progressive Republican signatures.

NATIONAL MUNICIPAL LEAGUE IN SESSION

LOS ANGELES, July 8.—The eighth annual meeting of the National Municipal League and the twentieth national conference for good city government was opened tonight in Los Angeles. With A. J. Wallace, lieutenant governor of California, presiding, the convention was officially called to order at 8 o'clock. George Alexander, mayor of Los Angeles, made an address of welcome.

Dr. Albert Elshnell, Hart of Harvard University, formerly vice president of the organization, made his annual address. He said that for some years the league had been giving an increasing amount of attention to the subject of city management by experts.

"At this meeting," he said, "a joint committee of the National Civil Service Reform League and the National Municipal League will present a formal report on the subject."

"Tomorrow's session of the league is devoted to include the report of the executive committee, the treasurer, the committee on nominations and the election of officers and the council."

WILL LET DISTRICTS DECIDE TAFT-T. R. CASE

GREENSBORO, N. C., July 8.—Republican state leaders, active in the campaign in support of Roosevelt, today adopted resolutions favoring the reference of the issue as to whether Taft or Roosevelt is the rightful nominee to the precinct primaries throughout the state. The resolution declared that the recent national Chicago convention was a "disgraceful action as binding upon the allegiance of Republicans."

The conference was attended by a majority of the North Carolina delegates to the Chicago convention.

RESERVOIR COMPANIES PERMANENTLY JOINED

FORT MORGAN, July 8.—A permanent injunction was granted in the district court against all reservoir companies in Weld and Larimer counties to prevent them from taking water from the South Platte river. The state engineer and division engineers also ordered not to interfere with the use of the water for ditch irrigation purposes.

MRS. DECKER'S BODY MAY LIE IN STATE

Governor Requests That Colorado Officially Be Allowed to Pay Honor

DENVER, July 8.—The body of Mrs. Sarah Platt Decker, who died in state in the capitol building, is being cared for by her daughter, Miss Harriet Platt, at the request of Governor John F. Shafroth. The governor today expressed his desire that Colorado officially be allowed thus to pay honor to Mrs. Decker. He declared her "the greatest woman of the state" and said that her death was a loss to the entire nation.

The flags on all city and state buildings were at half mast today, and will be kept so until after the funeral, which probably will be on Friday. Mayor Henry J. Arnold probably will order all city and county offices closed during the afternoon of the funeral.

If Mrs. Decker's body lies in state, she will be the first woman to whom Colorado has accorded the honor.

Hundreds of telegrams of condolence have been received by relatives here from friends of the suffragist in all parts of the country. Prominent local persons join in expressing their high regard for her ability and character.

It is expected that Mrs. Decker's body, accompanied by her daughter, will arrive in Denver Thursday. Definite funeral arrangements will be made then.

Was Greatest Woman in America

SAN FRANCISCO, July 8.—Hundreds of messages of condolence to the bereaved relatives of Sarah Platt Decker, who died here yesterday, were received today. Prominent clubwomen, clergymen and humanitarians joined in tributes to her character and achievements. Only the general office of the General Federation of Women's Clubs remained after Saturday, most of the delegates having left, believing that Mrs. Decker was recovering. Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker, the new president of the federation, gave the following expression of her sorrow at Mrs. Decker's passing:

"How much Mrs. Decker will be missed by clubwomen and by progressive interests which she had been so active in forwarding, can scarcely be realized now. She was a leader among her sex. Our federation will find it hard to survive the shock of her death. Her place can never be filled."

John Brisbane Walker, in a statement today, characterized Mrs. Decker as "the world's greatest stateswoman."

"Holding profound views on nearly all public questions, Mrs. Decker was wise, always sincere, always earnest, always temperate, always courageous, and always able to exercise a broad control over her fellow workers. No such woman as far as I am aware, has previously appeared in the history of America."

"In her intellectual grasp of public problems, and in her integrity of character, she has touched every public interest of her time with a clearness of vision possessed by no other woman in America, and indeed, by few, if any, men."

"She should have a hundred monuments to guide women to further accomplishment to show what a really great woman can do for her unfortunate sisters and fellowmen. She was the world's greatest stateswoman."

Had Trouble With Hanford in Which Ballinger Figured

SEATTLE, Wash., July 8.—Trouble with Judge Cornelius H. Hanford, in which former Secretary of the Interior Richard A. Ballinger figured as counsel for the opposing interests, was recounted here today by Attorney Terry Landon Fitch. Fitch was a witness before the subcommittee of the house judiciary committee, which is here investigating the character and conduct of the judge.

Fitch told the committee he was counsel for the shipbuilding firm of Lockman & Hansen, which about 10 years ago went into voluntary bankruptcy, with assets, Fitch said, of $500,000 and only $24,000 in liabilities. A receiver appointed by a King county (Seattle) judge sold the property to a man who, the witness asserted, was acting in the interests of a bank, of which Ballinger was counsel. Appearing before Judge Hanford, Fitch secured a reference of the matter to a referee in bankruptcy with a view to reopening the case. When, however, he demanded that the bank produce its books, the matter was put up to Judge Hanford, who not only declined to reopen the case, but criticized the attorney.

Threatened to Disbar Attorney.

"I told him," said Fitch, "that with these books I could produce evidence sufficient to disbar Ballinger, and his associates," referring to other attorneys who had appeared with Ballinger in the affair.

"Make that good, or I'll disbar you," Hanford replied. The judge, Fitch said, later called a meeting of the Seattle Bar association, at which resolutions were adopted exonerating Ballinger. A committee appointed to consider the disbarment of Fitch reported it could not find evidence upon which to act, whereupon the judge, in open court, expressed regret at his own inability to do it.

A. P. Perry, president of a lumber company of Tacoma, sent his card to the committee today, asking to be heard. He said that in 1908 he saw Judge Hanford "pretend" under the influence of money."

STATE RESTS IN THE DARROW CASE

Defense at Once Opens With Reading of Formidable Array of Depositions

LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 8.—The state rested, late today, in the trial of Clarence S. Darrow, and the noted Chicago lawyer began immediately his fight against conviction on the charge of bribing a prospective juror in the McNamara dynamiting cases. Two witnesses for the prosecution, Robert F. Bain, the first juror sworn to try J. B. McNamara, and Mrs. Dora Bain, his wife, were on the stand today, and at the conclusion of Mrs. Bain's examination, District Attorney Fredrickson announced that the state had rested its case in chief.

The defense at once opened. Chief Counsel Rogers of the defense began the reading of a formidable array of depositions, taken in Chicago several months ago, to show the good reputation and the high standing of Mr. Darrow in his profession and in the state of Illinois.

The first character deposition read was that of former United States Senator William E. Mason of Illinois. He said he had known Mr. Darrow since 1888, when they had debated the tariff question. Discussing Darrow's professional life, he said:

"People went to him in trouble, whether he got anything for it or not. Darrow's reputation, he said, was 'the very best.'"

Next examined was the alleged socialist editor of the defendant, Senator Mason said:

"I have given careful analysis to Mr. Darrow's beliefs. We are socialists, differing in a degree, if you analyze him, and his lectures. If he says it is philosophical anarchy, it means that real socialism does not include forceful amendment to laws. He always spoke for obedience to law."

Others Pay High Tribute to Him

Former United States Senator Albert Hopkins testified to long acquaintance and high personal regard for Mr. Darrow. Like Senator Mason, he was opposed politically to the defendant. He believed Mr. Darrow's reputation was very good.

The depositions of Mayor Carter H. Harrison and his predecessor, Fred A. Busse, were similar to those of the former senators. Former Mayor Hempstead Washburn paid a high tribute to the defendant.

Judge Stephen P. Shope, once chief justice of the Illinois supreme court, who was a friend of Abraham Lincoln and Stephen A. Douglas, and the present chief justice of that court, Judge Orrin N. Carter, likewise testified to Mr. Darrow's good reputation.

The deposition of James Hamilton Lewis was the last one read today. Considerable merriment was caused when Attorney Rogers read the contents of the witness as to the office he had held and those to which he had been elected. The election of Judge Edward F. Dunne to the mayoralty of Chicago, in 1895, he described briefly to the campaign work of Mr. Darrow, Medill Patterson, and himself. Darrow's reputation, he said, was "good—high class."

The reading of many other depositions by prominent Chicago jurists and lawyers will be continued tomorrow.

The testimony of Mr. and Mrs. Bain was a repetition of that given at the examination of Bert H. Franklin, and the examination of each was brief. Mrs. Bain testified she realized that her husband would be committing a felony when he accepted the alleged bribe money from Franklin, she had "coaxed" him to take in order that their home might be paid for.

AMERICANS ON DANGEROUS MISSION IN PERU IN THE INTERESTS OF HUMANITY

WASHINGTON, July 8.—A repetition of the horrors of the Congo rubber industry among the native rubber tappers of Peru is the cause of a dangerous mission which the state department has sent up the Amazon river in the interests of humanity.

Today Acting Secretary Wilson received information that Capt. Stuart Fuller, one of the department's most trusted agents, had arrived at Iquitos, 2,600 miles up the Amazon on his way to learn the facts.

Reports indicate the existence of conditions below the equator that parallel the outrages in the Congo country where natives were forced to torture and mutilations to collect certain quantities of rubber for Belgian and other concessions.

The concessionaire in Peru is asserted to be a British corporation. The state department, although no American citizens are involved, consulted with British officials and others interested in the welfare of those natives and made strong representations to the Peruvian government. It secured pledges from that government that the obnoxious condition would be terminated.

The government then dispatched Captain Fuller on the mission of ascertaining whether the Peruvian pledge has been redeemed.

DEADLOCK EXPECTED OVER NAVAL APPROPRIATION BILL

WASHINGTON, July 8.—Indicating that the house would not agree to the naval appropriation bill as amended by the senate, the chairman of the house naval committee today said he would not consent to any of the senate changes which have increased the naval appropriation to $15,000,000. It is believed there will be a deadlock.

CAMORRISTS ARE ADJUDGED GUILTY

ALLEGED MURDERERS ON TRIAL TWO YEARS

Verdict, Which Came as Surprise, Is Last Blow at Italian Organization

VITERBO, Italy, July 8.—The Camorristi, who have been on trial for nearly two years, on the charge of having murdered Giovanni Cuccolo and his wife, in June, 1909, were today adjudged guilty in varying degrees. The verdict declares Cuccolo Southern Italy's most notorious murderer. Antonio Cerretti and Mariano De Genova, co-defendants of the murder of Cuccolo and his wife, were found guilty of the murder of Cuccolo's wife.

Enrico Alfano, the alleged leader of the Camorristi, Giovanni Rapi, Di Martino and the others are convicted of being instigators of the crime and members of a criminal organization. The president of the court sentenced the condemned men.

Serfino Sorrento, Savio Morrici, Di Genova, Alfano, Rapi and Di Martino were sentenced to 20 years' imprisonment and to 10 years' police surveillance each. Di Martino to 10 years and six months' imprisonment and 10 years' surveillance. Sorrento, to 10 years' imprisonment and 10 years' surveillance. Morrici, the priest, seven years' imprisonment and 10 years' surveillance. The others to five years' imprisonment and three years' surveillance.

Di Martino Tries Suicide.

When the accused were placed in the iron cage to hear their verdict, Di Martino suddenly drew forth a piece of glass and cut his throat. The other prisoners screamed and shouted in protest and imprecations.

Rapi shouted:

"This innocent blood is crying for revenge!"

Alfano raged around and recalled the death of his brother, who he cried, was a victim of injustice and a man who had suffered the martyrdom of innocence.

Alfano knelt, weeping and praying. All the prisoners acted like maniacs, and the camorristi had difficulty in forcing their way into the cage to maintain order and carry out the wounded Di Martino.

The pronouncement of sentence was received with uproarious protests from the condemned men. One of them shouted:

"We are innocent. This is legal assassination."

Last Blow to the Camorristi.

Some shook their fists at the judge, and others tore at the bars of the cage. The attempt in concert to barricade those assembled in the court.

In addition to the police and carabinieri within the building, a battalion of troops with fixed bayonets was drawn up outside. It was feared an attempt might be made to rescue the prisoners.

Di Martino is in a serious condition. The glass with which he attempted suicide severed an artery. It was feared, but Di Martino, the moment he was left alone, one of the bandages and reopened the wound. Surgeons dressed his injuries, but the wounded man declared that he was determined to die.

The verdict, as a whole, proved a surprise, and all are agreed that the severity of the sentence is the last blow to the Camorristi which practically has been annihilated since the arrest of its leaders.

Aviators Protective Association Formed by Armen in Chicago

CHICAGO, July 8.—A National Association of Aviators founded "to save the lives of remaining American flyers" was organized today at the Cicero flying field of the Aero club of Illinois. Permanent organization will be completed on July 29, when every aeroplane operator in the United States is expected by the Chicago arm to be completely affiliated.

The association is called "The American Aviators Association." Members pledge themselves not to fly in an aeroplane they do not think safe, regardless of fears of accusation of cowardice. They seek action through the National Aeronautical body against managers or employers who seek to force aviators into unsafe flights and they have arranged for a mutual exchange of experiences.

"We do not yet know the air," said Director Drew of the Cicero field. "Every time a flyer rises up he meets some new equality. If we put this knowledge to common use we shall learn something."

The association will conduct intelligent investigations of aviation accidents.

NEW PARTY IN HOPES TO CAPTURE LOCAL OR STATE TICKETS FROM BOTH SIDES

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., July 8.—Plans were outlined today whereby Colonel Roosevelt hopes to capture local or state tickets from both the Democratic and Republican parties. In furtherance of his purpose to put the new third party on its feet, it is proposed to capture the vote within the party organizations where Roosevelt sentiment is strong enough to make such an attempt feasible.

"In certain districts," said Colonel Roosevelt, "the Republican nomination will be captured by Progressives, who will support our candidates for electors. In other districts this will be done through the Democratic organizations."

As the first step in the plan, there is under preparation what may be the most elaborate political chart of the country ever made. When completed, Colonel Roosevelt's organizers will have data from every congressional district in the country regarding the strength of the Roosevelt following, conditions in the Democratic and Republican parties, tabulations showing the vote in past national elections and lists of the best available political workers and leading business and professional men.

This will be Colonel Roosevelt's war map. It will show him at a glance where the best fields lie in each state and district for the success of Roosevelt electoral candidates. In some cases it is hoped to arrange fusion of the Republican and Democratic tickets, providing the candidates on the local tickets will support the Roosevelt electors in exchange for having the Roosevelt strength thrown to them.

Colonel Roosevelt was asked whether the absence from the list of signers to the convention call of several governors who had previously supported him meant they could not be with him in the formation of a new party.

"That does not follow," he replied. "I did not make up the list. Each state had that right."

TONOPAH, NEV., SWEEP BY DAMAGING FIRE

RENO, Nev., July 8.—The most costly fire that has ever visited Tonopah took place this morning at 1 o'clock, and, as a result, three handsome business blocks are now a mass of ashes and tottering walls. The loss is estimated by competent judges to be between $300,000 and $500,000.

One of the heaviest losses is that sustained by W. W. Booth, editor of the Bonanza, whose loss is $35,000, with no insurance. The fire, according to the best information obtainable, started in the K. P. building, and swept that structure in a few minutes, crossed the street and devoured Tom Kendall's old home, jumped from there to the old Tonopah Sun plant, completely gutting it, and from there it extended up Central street, taking many homes in its wake. It then doubled back and licked up the Tonopah block, worth $50,000. The wind then veered and the handsome Beckers Exchange building was flame swept. But a shell of it now stands. The fire jumped to side streets, destroying many dwellings, and turned to the State Bank & Trust Company building. The last cracked the windows and only heroic work saved the latter building.

TO ASK CONGRESS TO AID RURAL SCHOOLS

Conditions in Country Districts Deploable, Says Louisiana Educator

CHICAGO, July 8.—Confronted by a demand that congress be asked to appropriate money to relieve what was termed "the lowly, heart-rending and tragic condition of the rural schools of the country," the National Education association opened its fiftieth annual convention today.

Reports had been submitted that of the 20,000,000 public school pupils in the United States, 12,000,000 were being educated in rural schools, and that only one-third of the country boys and girls were making a satisfactory showing.

Thomas H. Harris, state superintendent of schools of Louisiana, said the condition of the rural schools was so deplorable it was time for the federal government to provide both money and methods to remedy the situation.

"The fear of federal interference with state control of schools should be set aside in the interest of the rising generation," said Mr. Harris. "National supervision of country schools is an absolute necessity. Our country needs a better educated rural citizenship."

A committee appointed to investigate the subject has decided to urge the appointment of field workers to travel over the country in the interest of rural schools.

Debate opened about the auditorium was filled when the convention was called to order, hundreds of educators being unable to secure admission. No final action was taken on any business, but the "campaign" of the candidates for president were carried on vigorously. The contest was enlivened by the introduction of a new candidate.

Western members are urging Homer H. Seely, president of the State Teachers college, Cedar Rapids, Ia. Other candidates are A. E. Fraleigh, Topeka, Kan.; Miss Grace C. Strachan, Brooklyn, N. Y.; and Joseph Swain, president of Swarthmore college.

13,000 VISITING ELKS IN PORTLAND

Grand Lodge Meeting Formally Opened With Reception Last Night

PORTLAND, Ore., July 8.—Tonight witnessed the formal opening of the forty-eighth annual convention of the grand lodge of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, C. L. Bradley, exalted ruler of the Portland lodge, presiding. Tonight's affair was in the nature of a general reception to the visiting members. Addresses of welcome in behalf of the convention, the city and state, and the response by Grand Exalted Ruler John Patrick Sullivan, constituted the exercises.

Tomorrow the delegates to the convention will take up the actual inner work of the organization. The reports of the grand officers will be read and Grand Exalted Ruler Sullivan will deliver his annual address which will review the work of the order since he assumed the stewardship.

The city rapidly is filling up with visiting Elks and others. Today 30 special trains from the east and various coast points arrived. Band after band followed by the various delegates paraded the downtown district and everywhere there was an evidence of "The Joy of Living."

The lights of the grand court of honor and other illuminations were turned on tonight. The registration bureau shows more than 13,000 visiting Elks with many more to register.

Fine Decoration Scheme

The decorations centralize about a court of honor. The streets are lined with pillars outlined in purple lights and surmounted by clusters of frosted globes. Across the streets between the pillars are purple and white festoons of incandescent lights swinging from illuminated clocks. At each end of the court there is an arch outlined with white lights, each surmounted by two electric lights of heroic size.

Today was given over to the festivities which included numerous band concerts and the official receptions. "Virtually every office save that of grand exalted ruler, for which the hills of Superior, Wis., appears to have a clear field, probably will be contested."

Principal among the contestants are those of Frederick Robinson of Dubuque, Iowa, whose reelection as grand secretary is contested by David McCarron of Port Huron, Mich.; Dr. Charles H. Warr of Pasadena, Cal., who is seeking election as grand esteemed loyal knight against W. H. Wisner of Goldfield, Nev.; a three-cornered contest for grand esteemed leading knight between Judge George Addington of Albany, N. Y., James K. King of Topeka, Kan., and Frank King of Providence, R. I.; a contest between E. M. Dickerman of Tucson, Ariz., and L. R. Maxwell of Haverhill, Mass., for grand esteemed leading knight; and between L. E. Levent of Keene, N. H., and Frank Lee Clark of Albuquerque, N. M., for grand inner guard. The contest for the convention city is becoming warm. In the field are Rochester, N. Y., and Cincinnati, Ohio, for the 1915 convention.

NATIONAL COMMITTEE OF G. D. P. UNABLE TO AGREE ON MAN FOR CHAIRMAN

WASHINGTON, July 8.—For four hours today, President Taft, his secretary, Charles D. Hillis, and a subcommittee of the Republican national committee discussed the question of that body's chairmanship without result. At 5:30 o'clock tonight they adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The meeting was entirely amicable. More than a dozen names were discussed. Mr. Hillis told the committee men that under no circumstances would he take the position, but that he would work for the selection of a man who would be a credit to the party.

Productions were made tonight that the chairmanship might not be set for several days. President Taft was said to be in a receptive mood and entirely willing to take any man who met with the approval of the subcommittee.

The president was host tonight to members of the subcommittee and many leading Republicans of the country at an outdoor reception on the White house grounds.

WILL DISCUSS PLANS TO MODERNIZE ARMY

WASHINGTON, July 8.—Series of conferences of experienced officers of the army, chiefs of bureaus, senators and representatives, including possibly the heads of the two military committees of congress, will begin at the war department tomorrow with a view to getting together upon a general measure of reorganization for the whole military establishment.

The object is to suggest legislation so thoroughly bipartisan as to secure congressional consideration on broad lines, to better army conditions, modernize military methods and reconcile extreme claims.

Conceding that congress is not likely to consider at this session a complete reorganization scheme, officials today expressed the hope that the conflicting elements which caused the Committee on Reorganization of the Army to be formed would be able to reach a compromise, meantime allowing the bill of last year to remain in force throughout the present fiscal year.

IMPEACHMENT CHARGES ON RECORD

House Judiciary Committee Presents 13 Articles Against Judge Archbald

EACH ONE ON ACCUSATION

Consideration Today Will Be Demand, but Some Senators Favor Delay

WASHINGTON, July 8.—Chairman Henry D. Clayton of the committee on judiciary of the house of representatives today presented to the house 13 articles of impeachment against Judge Robert W. Archbald of the United States court of commerce. Mr. Clayton's report was unanimous from his committee. It constitutes the ninth impeachment of a judicial or civil official of the United States since the foundation of the government and is the first since the impeachment trial of Judge Charles Swayne of the northern district of Florida, who was acquitted on February 27, 1905.

Many senators, including influential Republicans, favor deferring the trial until after the November elections, contending that ample time should be given to prepare for the hearing of the impeachment charges, and that many senators are needed at home to look after their political friends. Other senators, among whom are Senators Simmons, Bailey and Reed, all Democrats, urge that impeachment proceedings against Judge Archbald are of such high privilege that they should be taken up as soon as the house prefers the charges.

The 13 articles of impeachment, each an accusation, were presented to the house today with the announcement that their consideration tomorrow would be demanded. Speaker Clark emphasized the solemnity of the proceedings by securing the undivided attention of the house while the charges were being read by representative Clayton of Alabama, chairman of the judiciary committee which unanimously reported them.

Brands Conduct as Reprehensible.

"The conduct of this judge has been exceedingly reprehensible and in marked contrast with the high sense of judicial judiciary," the committee said in summing up its findings of misbehavior in office against Judge Archbald. His business transactions while a judge on the bench were held to unfit him for further service on the bench and a resolution was presented impeaching and halting him for trial before the United States senate.

Your committee is of the opinion that Judge Archbald's sense of moral responsibility has become decadent," said the report. "He has prostituted his high office for personal profit. It has attempted by various transactions."

"COME OUTSIDE AND WE'LL SEE IT" ANGRY PREACHER TELLS A PROHIBITIONIST

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., July 8.—A well-oiled "steam roller" ran over an insurgent movement in the Prohibition party tonight at a meeting of the national committee of that party, preliminary to the national convention, which meets Wednesday, and at the climax of a spirited session a minister of the gospel, challenged as to business, later, in a heated debate, "to come out doors."

Trouble started the moment Charles R. Jones, chairman of the national committee, called the meeting to order. Insurgents who have made no secret of their intentions to oust Mr. Jones, at once raised the point of a quorum. It developed that there was none, but, after several hours of maneuvering, a quorum was declared by Chairman Jones, after his followers, who were in the majority, had secured four places on the committee and brought the total membership to a point where the actual number present constituted a quorum.

During the debate when the committee had before it several motions to adjourn, it was reported that Chairman Jones had resigned, and that the Rev. H. A. Ellwood, pastor of the Board Walk church of Atlantic City, was prepared to make a statement regarding Mr. Jones's status. Mr. Stewart of Illinois, H. P. Harris of Missouri and other leaders objected to the committee taking action on such a statement, declaring Mr. Jones's place vacant.

"We have only this man's word that he had a telephone conversation," said Mr. Stewart.

"Does the gentleman doubt my word?" indignantly demanded the Rev. Mr. Ellwood, rising to his feet.

"Yes, I do," Mr. Stewart quickly replied.

"Well," the minister retorted, "come outside and we'll settle it."

While friends interposed explanations followed, Chairman Jones put a motion declaring Jones's place vacant, and it was carried.

The committee then proceeded to select arrangements for the convention.

MEXICAN REBELS MAKE THREAT TO ATTACK 100 AMERICANS AT COLONIA

AGUA PRIETA, Mexico, July 8.—A fight between rebels and Mexican nationalists at Colonia Morelos, and Colonia Oaxaca, 65 miles southwest of Douglas, Ariz., is probable tomorrow. Today the rebels occupied Bayside without resistance from the federales, who have been garrisoning the town until a few days ago.

The rebels made a demand upon the colonists, 50 miles away, for three wagon loads of corn. The Americans refused the request. A notice was then sent by the rebel leader that he would send a detachment of men to seize the corn and sign a receipt. The colonists replied that they would fight before they would give up one pound of corn.

Preparations for defense have been made by the colonists. Sentinels are posted to watch for the rebels and the school house bell will be rung as a signal of danger. There are about 100 Americans in the two colonies and all are well armed. Nearly half of General Salguero's command has returned to Agua Prieta and the other federal troops are only 20 miles distant. Federal commanders believe that an attack will be made on Agua Prieta and every effort will be made to defend the town.

Jacobi, a small town about 65 miles south of this place, was occupied today by Captain Vasquez and 40 rebels. These men are part of the force from Casas Grandes.

LORIMER DEFENDER ATTACKS ROOSEVELT

WASHINGTON, July 8.—An attack upon Theodore Roosevelt for condemning Senator Lorimer featured the defense in the Lorimer election case in the senate today. Senator Fletcher of Florida, following up the conclusion of Senator Dillingham's speech for Lorimer, arraigned Roosevelt.

Theodore Roosevelt could enjoy a luncheon with Booker Washington at the White House, declared Mr. Fletcher, "but could not afford to dine in the same room with Mr. Lorimer, a member of the club of which he was a guest."

The Florida senator referred to the former president as the "headquarters of morality" who condemned Lorimer on the false allegation repeated to him by Editor H. H. Kohlsaat that $100,000 had been raised and used to elect Lorimer. Senator Fletcher said Colonel Roosevelt does not know the facts. Senator Fletcher said Editor Kohlsaat placed explicit faith in what Clarence S. Funk told him about Edward Hines asking for a contribution to a $100,000 Lorimer fund. Senator Fletcher contended that Mr. Funk's memory was unreliable and that Mr. Funk had given seven different dates as the time at which his conversation with Mr. Hines regarding the "slush fund" had occurred.

SENATOR BRISTOW OF KANSAS FOR ROOSEVELT

EMPORIA, Kan., July 8.—United States Senator Joseph L. Bristow of Kansas formally has declared for Theodore Roosevelt for president in a letter to William Allen White, Roosevelt national committeeman from Kansas, according to an announcement here today. In his letter, Mr. Bristow declared that the renomination of Taft was "fraudulent and that Republicans are in no way bound by it."

IF CAN'T VOTE FOR TAFT VOTE FOR WILSON OSBORN

LANSING, Mich., July 8.—Governor Osborn, in a statement today, expresses the hope "all good Republicans will refuse to join the malcontents" in the formation of a new party, and says those who are not satisfied with Mr. Taft as a presidential candidate can get what they desire by voting for Wilson.

FEDERALS FIGHT YAQUIS

TUCSON, Ariz., July 8.—According to advices received here today, 200 Mexican federal soldiers and 600 Yaqui Indians met in battle at Potom, in Yaqui valley, Mexico, late Saturday. Between 30 and 100 Yaquis were killed, while Lieutenant Colonel Demetrio of the federal forces and six of his soldiers met a like fate. It was reported that there today.

SAVING LIVES OF BABIES

NEW YORK, July 8.—A report issued by the Babies Welfare association shows that the first week of July, 237 babies died in Greater New York, as compared with 247 deaths in the same week a year ago. The saving of lives is attributed to the work of the pure milk stations, which are now serving milk to 18,000 registered infants.

IMPEACHMENT CHARGES

to commercialize his potentiality as judge. He has shown an overweening desire to make a fortune by means of parties having cases before him or likely to have cases before him. To accomplish this purpose he has not hesitated to use his official power and influence. He has destroyed the high office and destroyed the chief confidence of the public in his judicial integrity. He has forfeited the condition upon which he holds his commission and should be removed from office by impeachment.

"A judge should be the personification of integrity, of honor and of uprightness in his daily work and conversation. He should hold his exalted office and administration of justice above the sordid desire to accumulate wealth by trading or trafficking with actual or probable litigants in his court. He should be free and unaffiliated by any bias born of avarice and unhampered by pecuniary or other obligations."

Findings of Committee.

With Chairman Clayton's report was a resolution providing for the management before the senate. The full committee designated Chairman Clayton, Representative Floyd of Arkansas, Davis of West Virginia, and Webb of North Carolina, Democrats, and Representative Norris of Nebraska, Republican of Illinois, and Howland of Ohio, Republican, managers, to prosecute the Archbald trial before the senate. The charges against Judge Archbald range from his business transactions with actual and possible litigants in his court to a trip to Europe which he was charged was given the judge by Henry A. Cannon, a railroad magnate and financial power in New York. Favoritism to a railroad litigant also was included in the charges and in the thirteenth count of the indictment under the heading general misbehavior of Judge Archbald, the committee reviewed the charges and found that Judge Archbald "grossly abused the properties of his said office of judge, was guilty of misbehavior and of misdemor in office."

An epitome of the articles of impeachment follows: Negotiated with the Erie Railroad company, for the purchase of the Katydid coal dump, for Edward J. Williams, his business associate. In the opinion of your committee, Judge Archbald's participation in this transaction, under all the circumstances was reprehensible and prejudicial to the confidence of the American people in the federal judiciary.

awanna & Western Railroad company. This company was owned by the Boland brothers of Scranton, at that time litigants against the railroad before the interstate commerce commission. The committee charged Judge Archbald figured in the negotiations for a valuable consideration.

Article 3. That Judge Archbald sought to lease from the Lehigh Valley Railroad company, a culm bank on the Glard estate coal property near Shenandoah, Pa. At this time the railroad was a litigant before the commerce court and before the interstate commerce commission. The committee said, "It is the conclusion of your committee that the offices of the coal company's subsidiary relinquished the right to operate the said culm bank because of the influence exercised upon them through Judge Archbald's position as a member of the commerce court."

Article 4. That Judge Archbald sought additional evidence from Helm Bruce, attorney for the Louisville & Nashville railroad, in a case before the commerce court, which had been closed and given to the judges for decision. Later he considered a supplemental brief from Mr. Bruce without the knowledge of the attorneys for the interstate commerce commission to meet a conclusion by another member of the court. Judge Archbald wrote the decision in favor of the railroad company.

Call Action, Unfair and Unjust.

"In the opinion of your committee, this conduct on the part of Judge Archbald was unfair and unjust to the parties defendant in this case."

Article 5. That Judge Archbald used his judicial influence to get a coal lease from the Philadelphia and Reading company for Frederick Warnke. It is charged that Warnke promised the judge $500 and later a note for $500 was discounted for the judge and has not yet matured.

Article 6. That Judge Archbald used his influence to help James R. Dainty of Scranton, Pa., purchase a coal tract from the Lehigh Valley railroad, while the Lehigh had a suit before the commerce court.

"The persistence with which Judge Archbald sought these business favors or property concessions from railroads having litigation, or likely to have litigation before the commerce court indicates a well-defined plan to use his official position and influence as a member of such court for financial gain and profit," said the committee.

Article 7. That Judge Archbald figured as a signer and the payee of a note for $25,000 by W. W. Reisinger of Scranton, Pa., five days after he had adjudicated an insurance lawsuit in which Reisinger was interested and a beneficiary.

Articles 8 and 9. That Judge Archbald sent Edward J. Williams to William P. Boland to discount a note for $500 signed by John Henry Jones while the Bolands were interested in a law suit before him. Boland would not discount the note which was discounted in a Scranton bank and has never been paid.

Regarding Pleasure Trip to Europe.

Articles 10 and 11.—That in the spring of 1910 Judge Archbald permitted Henry W. Cannon of New York to pay his entire expenses on a pleasure trip to Europe. Mr. Cannon was at that time and still is a stockholder and director in many railroads. "It is claimed that Mr. Cannon is a distant relative of Judge Archbald's wife," said the committee, "but, however this may be, your committee regards it as improper for a judge thus to obligate himself to an officer of numerous corporations likely to become directly or indirectly involved in litigation before his court."

For the same trip, E. W. Searle, clerk of Judge Archbald's court, collected $500 from attorneys practicing at that bar.

Article 12.—Appointed Judge R. D. Woodward of Wilkesbarre, a railroad attorney, as jury commissioner of his court. This was calculated to bring the federal judiciary into disrepute, the committee said. Accompanying the articles of impeachment, Chairman Clayton presented a brief to show that the actions of Judge Archbald described as "misbehavior," came within the purview of the constitutional provision for impeachment which enumerates "treason, bribery or other high crimes and misdemeanors."

The penalty provided in successful impeachment cases is removal from office and may include a bar from ever holding any office of trust or honor again.

Senate Has Acted Eight Times.

The senate which tries officials impeached by the house has been called upon to act as an impeachment court eight times in the past. One trial was of a president, Andrew Johnson, who was acquitted; another of a cabinet officer, Secretary of War William W. Belknap, acquitted; a senator, William B. Hoar of Tennessee, who resigned; an associate justice in the supreme court of the United States, Samuel Chase, acquitted; and four United States judges, John H. Pickens of New Hampshire, removed from office; James H. Peck of Missouri, acquitted; West H. Humphries of Tennessee, removed from office; and Charles M. Swaine, Florida, acquitted.

Judge Archbald was appointed United States judge for the middle district of Pennsylvania by President McKinley on March 19, 1901, during a recess of congress on December 10, 1901. He was recommended by President Roosevelt. He was commissioned a United States circuit judge and assigned to the commerce court by President Taft on January 31, 1911.

The proceedings against Judge Archbald began when the house adopted a resolution by Representative Norris of Nebraska calling on the department of justice for a report of its investigation of the judicial conduct of Judge Archbald. On May 4 last President Taft transmitted to the house the investigations of Interstate Commerce Commission Meyer and of Whisley Wesley Brown, special attorney for the department of justice, and the recommendation of Attorney General William C. Clegg that the charges be referred to the house.

On May 7 last Chairman Clayton called the judiciary committee to consider the Archbald charges. Testimony was taken in open session until June 4. Judge Archbald and his counsel were present at all times.

SCORES OF PEOPLE SEE

SALIDA GIRL KILL SELF

SALIDA, Colo., July 8.—Her love unrequited and her life wrecked, Arbita Martinez, a beautiful 16-year-old Mexican girl, before the gaze of churchgoers in the streets, climbed a high granite, raised her arms dramatically above her head and as scores of men rushed toward her, plunged into the roaring water of the Arkansas river and disappeared. An all-day search by the police has failed to recover the body.

The girl's act was witnessed by scores of persons. Although many were but a short distance from the terrible near the Rio Grande hospital, aside from nothing that the girl was beautifully gowned, they did not see the face and it was not until later that her identity was known.

The incident shattered the calm of the Sabbath here as nothing has in the history of the town and throughout the day false rumors have flooded the police station. It was not until a fisherman living on the river bank gave a minute description of the girl that the police were able to identify her.

The revelation of the girl's name has brought to light the closing chapter to one of the saddest tragedies of real life that this city has ever known. Arbita Martinez, young and beautiful and possessed of some means, became a resident of Salida and soon became famed for her beauty.

Among all her suitors, she seemed to smile most favorably upon John Mautz, a local business man. Several weeks ago the cloud came over the life of the pretty Mexican girl, when she swore out information against Mautz upon a statutory charge and he was arrested and released upon $1,500 bond. Since then the girl has been seen but little and her appearance for the last week of her life did not at once bring back to her life and she saw her the result of her identity and tragic story.

SUSPECT HELD FOR DEATH OF YOUNG NEW YORK GIRL

NEW YORK, July 8.—Giovanni Greco, who owns a coal and wood yard near the vacant lot, where 12-year-old Julia Connor was found yesterday dying with 30 stab wounds in her body, was arrested early today, charged with homicide.

Florence Molz, who identified Greco as one of three men she says lived Julia and another girl into a cellar, was sent to Children's society to be held as a material witness. The child told conflicting stories, however, and the police are far from a solution of the crime.

STATE HEADQUARTERS OF DEMOCRATS OPENED

DENVER, July 8.—State Chairman George T. Bradley today opened state Democratic headquarters to begin work for the fall campaign. The first state assembly is scheduled to meet in Pueblo, August 6.

FRENCH SOLDIERS DEFEAT AN OLD ENEMY IN MOROCCO

FEZ, July 7.—(Delayed in transmission.)—A crushing defeat was inflicted today by the French general, Gouraud, with 2,000 men, on one of the most persistent enemies of France in Morocco, who is known as the flog of Sictaila. The French surprised him near Moulay Bouchtou.

DEADLOCK OVER LOAN

PEKING, July 8.—A deadlock was reached at a conference today between the Chinese minister of finance, Hsiung Hsi-tung, and the foreign bankers, because of the determination of the latter to adhere to the decision of the Paris conference.

MACK CONFERS WITH WILSON

SEA GIRT, N. Y., July 8.—Norman E. Mack, chairman of the Democratic national committee, held a long conference tonight with Governor Wilson, during which the loyal support of the organization in New York was pledged to the governor.

COURT OFFICERS WOUNDED

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 8.—While in the county prosecutor's office here today seeking a warrant for the arrest of J. W. Beck, Governor W. King, cashier for a local traction company, whipped out a pistol and shot four times, two bullets taking effect in Beck's body, the other two slightly wounding two deputy prosecutors and narrowly missing Judge Ralph S. Lathrop of the criminal court.

King and his wife had been separated and a divorce suit was pending, but recently a reconciliation took place.

Beck, who had played the role of peace-maker, has been disturbing their peace of late. King and his wife charged, and they took him to the prosecutor's office today to secure a warrant for him. The warrant was being prepared when King began to shoot.

Beck was seriously injured and is in a hospital. A bullet passed through a finger of Deputy Prosecutor F. S. Galloway and another through the arm of Deputy Prosecutor Thomas Higgs.

BELIEVE BUBONIC PLAGUE IN HAVANA IS CHECKED

HAVANA, July 8.—As no additional cases of bubonic plague have been discovered, and as the only case of the disease was developed July 7, the sanitary authorities are becoming more hopeful that the lapse of five days free from infection indicates that the plague has been checked.

HAYWOOD IS BUSY IN LATEST LABOR WAR

NEW ORLEANS, July 8.—Bitterness between the lumber operators and non-union workers on one side and union workers on the other has been in a battle with a death toll of four today. In a battle with a death toll of four today, in the activity of Socialist leaders who have played parts in the labor war.

William Haywood of Denver, acting with local Socialists, has called a meeting for tomorrow night to protest against the sending of troops to Grapow where, it is admitted, more trouble is feared. It is claimed the only contention at Grapow was the union's demand for a semi-monthly "pay" day. Yesterday's battle, however, was precipitated when union men from Denver attempted to have a meeting in Grapow.

James Greel, editor of a Socialist paper in St. Louis, arrived in Lake Charles, this morning claiming he had been driven from Oakdale by "gun men" in the employ of mill owners, because he made Socialist speeches to the workers.

DOG BRINGS NEWS OF YOUNG MASTER'S DEATH

PITTSBURG, July 8.—A broken chain lashing from its neck, dripping with water, and carrying between its teeth the ring and trousers of its 12-year-old master, John Redick, Jr., Prince, a big black dog, this afternoon apprised the family that the boy had been drowned. When the dog appeared at the Redicks home, John Redick, the father, followed to the Allegheny river, where the boy had been drowned, and there the dog's chain and underclothing were found in a large.

A section of the broken dog chain was hanging from a nail on the large. Redick said that Prince had made a effort to save Redick from drowning, but that the chain had prevented. Redick said the dog had struggled until the chain broke.

How to Grow Hair On a Bald Head

BY A SPECIALIST.

Thousands of people suffer from baldness and falling hair, who have tried nearly every advertised hair tonic and hair-grower without results, have resigned themselves to baldness and its attendant discomfort. Yet their case is not hopeless; the following simple home prescription has made many grow after years of baldness, and is also unequalled for restoring gray hair to its original color, stopping hair from falling out, and destroying the dandruff germs. It will not make the hair greasy, and can be put up by any druggist. Buy rum, 6 ounces; Lavender de Compresse, 2 ounces; Menthol crystals, one-half dram. If you wish it perfumed, add half to one teaspoonful of T. T. K. Perfume, which unites perfectly with the other ingredients. This preparation is highly recommended by physicians and specialists, and is absolutely harmless, as it contains no poisons or other noxious and alcohol substances frequently found in hair tonics. Do not apply to the face or scalp, as hair is not desired.

THE REPUBLICAN PLATFORM

THE Republican platform is a colorless document. On the one hand, it is not sufficiently specific to bind the Republican party to action in a definite direction. On the other hand, its vague and general statements were to be interpreted and enforced by vigorous personalities whose statements could well become the basis for a virile administration, distinctly progressive.

At the outset the platform declares: "We believe in our self-controlled representative democracy, which is a government of laws, not men, and in which order is the prerequisite of progress." But just as a law means nothing until you know the kind of men who are responsible for its enforcement, so a progressive platform may be nullified by the type of candidates nominated to stand upon it, or a colorless statement may be given color and meaning by a candidate of power and independence.

One naturally and rightly reads that meaning into the present Republican platform which he thinks would be given it by the Republican presidential nominee and the forces which secured his nomination. Luckily experience is available indicating the interpretation that those who stand upon the platform are likely to give to it. The Republican platform of four years ago promised "revision of the tariff." Revision downward was not distinctly promised, but campaign speeches made everyone believe that it was meant. After the Payne-Aldrich bill had been passed and had been labeled "the best ever," President Taft explained that the platform did not actually promise revision downward. It is with President Taft's attitude in mind that the present Republican platform should be read.

Does the Republican platform, by the following statement, favor a general Parcel Post, or merely one that will not compete with the express companies?

In the interest of the general public, and particularly of the agricultural communities, we favor legislation looking to the establishment of a parcel post.

Does the Republican party favor ship subsidies?

We believe that one of this country's most urgent needs is a revived merchant marine. There should be American ships and plenty of them to make use of the great American inter-oceanic canal now nearing completion.

With numerous paragraphs taken from the Republican platform everyone interested in securing the betterment of our national laws can heartily agree. The entire value of the following statements depends, however, upon the meaning read into them.

BANKING AND CURRENCY PROGRESSIVE DEVELOPMENT.

The Republican party is committed to the progressive development of our banking and currency system.

THE CIVIL SERVICE, EXTEND IT.

We reaffirm our adherence to the principle of appointment of public office based on proved fitness and merit during good behavior and efficiency.

The Republican party favors the passage of legislation empowering the president to extend the competitive service so far as practicable.

THE JUDGES, DO SOMETHING.

While we regard the recall of judges as unnecessary and advise no such action as may be necessary to simplify the process by which any judge who is found to be derelict in his duty may be removed from office.

DUTIES ARE TOO HIGH, SOME ARE.

We hold that the import duties should be high enough while yielding a sufficient revenue to protect adequately American industries and wages. Some of the existing import duties are too high and should be reduced. Readjustment should be made from time to time. To accomplish this correct information is indispensable. This information can best be obtained by an expert commission as the large volume of useful facts contained in the recent report of the tariff board has demonstrated.

THE TRUSTS, DEFINE THEM.

The Republican party favors the enactment of legislation supplementary to the existing anti-trust act which will define as criminal offenses those specific acts that constitute unfair methods of competition and that shall be made to include those who honestly intend to meet the law.

may have a guide for their action and that those who aim to violate the law may be more surely punished.

CONSERVATION, BUT NOT TOO MUCH.

"We favor such fair and reasonable rules and regulations as will not discourage or interfere with actual benefice homeseekers, prospectors and miners."

The Republican party recommends that an investigation of foreign agricultural loan societies be undertaken with the object of ascertaining if the establishment of such societies is expedient in the United States. It also pledges itself to make a scientific inquiry into the causes of the increased cost of living, and to remedy such abuses as are found to exist.

In conclusion, then, the letter of the Republican platform is indefinite. It does not bind President Taft and other Republican nominees who stand upon it to take action in a definite direction. They are not committed. Dissatisfaction with the chief nominee of the party has not been offset by the adoption of a vigorous and unequivocal statement of principles.

THE PRIZE FIGHT LESSON.

To the Editor of The Gazette.

Colorado Springs, the Athens of the west, is a city of great privileges and noble aspirations. We bring fabled legends from England, noted historians from Harvard, archaeologists from Santa Fe and Washington, epigraphists from Johns Hopkins and ring news from Los Angeles and Las Vegas. Then we have beautiful pictures in hall and on street, showing forth the deep interest, our aged and wise, our young men and maidens and the boys and girls of tender years have in the freshest news of that magnificent Fourth of July struggle for honors and for humanity, the God-blessed Las Vegas, between the sweetly-scented Johnson and Flynn, the Christian nobleman, Pueblo's airy pride. Whether we are drifting?

A little boy of 7 or 8 summers greatly regrets that Johnson won, as he lost five good, hard-earned cents which he had bet on Flynn, because Dad said: "Flynn could whip the nigger." A young lady, with probably her first beau, "was on Pike's Peak avenue, among the first to get the news," and was delighted with herself and the occasion, "because to me Flynn explained it all." Significantly, next day she said to me, a stranger, "You missed it in not being down town to see the crowd and hear the news, while the news were making."

Taking pity on me she rehearsed some of the most striking parts, some of which seemed to be from "The Fourth of July Column." Dramatically, with zest and inspiration, she described the bleeding Flynn, "with blood on his face, blood on his arms, blood on his breast, blood on his—well, yes, blood on his gorywhere."

Of course I could not help feeling under obligation to the young lady. She looked so innocent and so joyous. I suspect she knows all about predestination and the fall of man and other things, that nobody else knows anything about. Well, I returned her favor, by describing some of the sports of ancient Rome, when the fight was to the death, with wild beasts and wilder men. She said: "Oh, I don't believe I could stand that." I replied: "It is a matter of education. In Spanish-American countries I have often been practically compelled to go to bull fights and to see the goings and comings to satisfy the curiosity of visiting women and men from my own country, and we have seen the elite young ladies of the land, by scores and hundreds, clapping their hands and reeling in ecstasy, when an infuriated bull disemboweled a poor blind-folded horse and the rider continued to ride triumphantly on the horse's entrails trailing on the ground, until the animal fell dead, amid the deafening shouts of an appreciative audience, most of whom were women."

"Familiarity with the flow of blood, with maimed, disemboweled, dying beasts and men, takes away all squeamishness, prepares us for inquisitions, for burning heretics and witches for enjoying the prize fights of chickens, bulls and men, for approving the bumpkins' nose and the electric chair, for gloating in the horrors of war and the social hates of men."

"Can it be so?" my young friend replied.

JAMES HUTCHISON KERR.

Colorado Springs, July 8.

OBSERVANCE OF THE SABBATH.

To the Editor of The Gazette.

Permit me to say a few words on the question of the observance of the Sabbath. The city council has been requested by the proprietors of the picture shows to repeal the excellent ordinance now in force against the opening of these shows on the Sabbath day.

To open these places of amusement on the Sabbath would be a blow struck at the very best interests of the people of the community. For in the light of history and experience the following propositions cannot successfully be denied:

First, Christianity is the fountain-head of the prosperity of the city and the nation.

Second, the Christian church is the bulwark of Christianity in the world.

Third, the proper observance of the Sabbath is essential to the perpetuity of the Christian church.

Fourth, attendance upon places of amusement upon the Sabbath day is destructive to the true spirit of Sabbath observance.

The only reason given by those who wish to open these picture shows is a commercial one. They want the money which they can thus earn. But is reverence for the Sabbath and the Bible to be sold by our city council for gold? Will they permit the morals of the people of the community to deteriorate that a few people may become rich? Will the council defend the unwholesome sentiment of thousands of church-going people in the community?

The great bulk of the church-going people undoubtedly would not patronize the Sunday picture show. But to many, who would not realize the danger, the temptation to do so would be very strong, and the general tendency of the open amusement house would be the breaking down of that sentiment which is fundamental to the best character and the worthiest citizenship, viz: reverence for the Sabbath and its faithful observance as a day of rest and worship.

Our city council will surely so legislate on this vital subject as to conserve and promote the making of good citizens out of our boys and girls. For Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, successor of Henry Ward Beecher in Plymouth Brooklyn is right when he says: "When the multitudes cease to flow into the sanctuary to bathe themselves in God's divine ether, to wash the grime from the soul's garments, to sharpen the dulled instruments of the spirit, that moment the bloom and beauty will begin to pass from our arts, our literature, our music, our laws, and the very springs of our civilization will dry up."

MONEY TO BURN.

From The Philadelphia Inquirer.

Last year the fire loss in this country was $3 per capita, or about $15 for each family. This totals well on to $800,000,000, and most of it came through gross carelessness. No other country has such a bad record.

It is some comfort that this city comes off rather well compared with others. Boston burned up over $5 per capita last year, New York half as much, while this city is third with $1.65. Some years we have had a much worse record than last. Even our comparatively good showing is worse than that of St. Petersburg, which leads European cities, London lost only 50 cents per capita and Berlin only 25. There is no apparent reason why the losses here should be nearly seven times those of Berlin except that we are grossly and criminally careless.

Firemen matches seem to have caused most of the fires in this country, and for this there is no excuse. Safety matches are just as cheap, but the American people are careless and stupid beyond all computation. In the cities there is better fire protection, and in most establishments good supervision, but, unfortunately, in cities where the process of rebuilding is going on an old shack may start a conflagration.

The American people should be more careful. Insurance companies are constantly making appeals, are inflicting penalties on derelict policy holders, but the waste continues. The worst of it is that we show very little improvement even after enormous holocausts. Something must be done pretty soon, and apparently the states will have to take action by which the careless owner of property shall get no insurance if it can be shown that he might have prevented the loss.

What has become of the old-fashioned man who claimed he was poor because compelled years ago to pay a security debt?

I prefer a dog that bites, if sufficiently provoked, to one that barks all night at false alarms.

The one thing that may be depended upon in all men all the time is that they will promptly take an interest in reforming other men's morals, and business affairs.

A rooster crows because he hears other roosters crow. But what starts the first rooster in the morning?

When your time comes a sudden death beats a long siege with a trained nurse, a consultation of doctors, and morphine to give those in the house a little rest.

It must require a good deal of nerve for a man to decide that he is the most suitable candidate for president of the United States, and that he can get the office.

There is no secret of success, since everybody knows how men succeed. Keep everlastingly at it, is the first requirement; the second is, don't give people cause to say you can't be trusted.

People in this country have a tremendous amount of liberty. In the town where I live, a negro woman was at liberty to sue the estate of a white man, nineteen years after his death, and urge the claim that she was his common-law wife.

When a jury brings in a verdict of not guilty, people generally say: "I bet he was."

If you can do a creditable thing well, people will admit it; they may admit it grudgingly, but they will admit it.

Positive People

By RUTH CAMERON.

"If you can keep your head when all about you are losing theirs and blaming on you, you can trust yourself when all men doubt you; but make allowance for their doubting too; If you can wait and not be tired by waiting; Or being lied about, don't deal on lies; Or being hated, don't give way to hating; AND YET DON'T LOOK TOO GOOD OR TALK TOO WISE!"

—Kipling.

To be clever is an excellent thing.

To know how to throw a veil of unconsciousness and pretense of being just like other people over your cleverness is even better.

Likewise, to be accurate and right when you make a statement is a good thing.

To know better than to be positive when you make one of these accurate statements is even better.

I wonder if there is any quality which wins for its possessor more dislike than positiveness?

It may be founded on the most palaworthiness, accuracy, and "well informedness," but that makes no difference—to a world made up mostly of common people, positiveness is always irritating.

Haven't you often noticed how delighted every one is when one of the positive folks by any chance is wrong?

If anyone else made the same blunder he would be contemptuously set right. But when the positive man makes the mistake, it is heralded abroad and laughed over and made fun of, with great éclat.

The positive one cannot understand this. It seems most unjust to him. "I'm sure I'm usually a good deal more correct than these people who are crowing over me for this one blunder," he thinks resentfully.

Quite so, my friend, but you forget that by your "I am-always-right" attitude you have been rubbing it into those people so long that they couldn't help being delighted at a chance to return the compliment.

For any girl—or man, either, for that matter—who desires popularity, I should recommend positiveness as a red light on the track to be sedulously avoided.

Be as accurate and well informed and as "right" as you can, but don't let on that you are so.

People will like you much better if you let them have the pleasure of discovering these qualities in you. People always like to "discover" things, you know.

"Be sure you're right, then go ahead" is excellent advice from a moral standpoint, but for social comfort, "Be sure you're right, then keep it to yourself" is better.

For an untried boy and girl to fulfill the rest of Kipling's motto, if you feel that one, if you look too good or talk too wise, you will fill the rest and do not reach the full measure of a man.

COUNCIL TO ACT ON SUNDAY CLOSING LAW

The city council yesterday heard arguments on the proposed day of rest ordinance and the proposed ordinance to repeal an ordinance prohibiting the giving of Sunday entertainments for which an admission is charged. It is probable that the day of rest ordinance will be acted on tomorrow.

Frank H. Tamm, manager of the Majestic theater, spoke for the proposed ordinance to repeal the one prohibiting Sunday entertainments. He claimed that motion pictures have an educational value, and as they are all passed by a national board of censors, no harm can come from visiting a show.

To find the sentiment on Sunday shows, Mayor Avery will probably appoint a committee from the Civic league to make investigations. The commissioners say they do not wish to act hastily on the matter and want to act in accordance with the wishes of the general public.

The various Sunday schools of the city have passed resolutions against the proposed ordinance.

The day of rest ordinance as outlined is similar to the Sunday closing ordinance proposed by a number of ministers of this city several months ago. It prohibits work of any nature except when absolutely necessary, makes it unlawful to keep open stores on Sunday, except when required by necessity, and gives all employees one day of rest in seven. The day of rest ordinance as suggested by the city attorney, is as follows:

AN ORDINANCE

RELATING TO A DAY OF REST.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF COLORADO SPRINGS:

Section 1. CERTAIN WORK PROHIBITED ON SUNDAY. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, association or corporation to engage in hauling bulky commodities, except express for business, or to use any truck or other vehicle or to engage in public construction work on Sunday, except when required by necessity; or to engage in any labor on Sunday where the public is disturbed, unless required by necessity.

Section 2. UNLAWFUL TO KEEP OPEN CERTAIN STORES ON SUNDAY. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, association or corporation to keep open or to cause any person to keep open any store for the sale of property on Sunday, except when required by necessity; but nothing in this section shall prohibit any person from keeping open for the legitimate and orderly transaction of business any hotel, restaurant, bath house, confectionery, retail drug store, livery stable, garage or prevent the sale or exchange of milk, cream, butter, eggs, fresh fruits, bakery articles, prepared tobacco or papers on Sunday.

Section 3. WHAT PROPERTY MAY BE CARRIED FOR ON SUNDAY. Nothing in this ordinance shall be construed as prohibiting the doing of anything necessary for the proper care of animals, perishable foods or commodities, or doing that which is needed for the preservation of life, property, or for the welfare of the general public on Sunday.

Section 4. EXEMPTION OF THOSE WHO OBSERVE SOME OTHER DAY. Any person, firm, association or corporation who conscientiously believes that the seventh day of the week is the Sabbath and actually refrains from labor as herein specified on that day, or times his or its place of business on another day, shall not be liable to the provisions of Sections 1 and 2 of this ordinance, unless the labor shall be of a character to disturb the peace and quiet of the public on Sunday.

Section 5. EMPLOYEES GIVEN ONE DAY OF REST IN SEVEN. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, association or corporation to require, or to permit any person in his or its employ, to work on Sunday or on Sunday, unless the person so employed has had a full day off from the labor of such employer or has had off as many working hours during the preceding six days as he is required to work on Sunday, or unless an unforeseen emergency has arisen which renders the labor of the employee necessary on Sunday, and in the event of the employee from such emergency, or from necessity, the employer shall require the employee to take one full day or as many hours off from his working hours during the next succeeding six days as such employee worked on Sunday. The provisions of this section shall apply to both day and night work, but shall not apply to general managers or superintendents where the character of the work requires continuous supervision.

Section 6. PENALTY. Any person, firm, association or corporation who shall violate any of the provisions of this ordinance shall, on conviction, be fined in any sum not less than five nor more than one hundred dollars for each offense.

Section 7. This ordinance shall not repeat any other ordinance of this city relating to Sunday or Sunday observance, but shall be construed as being supplemental to said ordinances.

Section 8. This ordinance shall be published as required by the charter and take effect and be in force on and after eleven days after its final passage.

If you are a housewife, you cannot reasonably hope to be healthy by beautiful, clean, shining dishes, sweeping and doing housework all day, and crawling into bed dead tired at night. You must get out into the open air and sunlight. If you do this every day and keep your stomach and bowels in good order by taking Chamberlain's Tablets, when needed, you should become both healthy and beautiful. For sale by all dealers.

GIRL KILLS FATHER WHO OBJECTED TO HER MARRYING

ANTIERS, Okla., July 8.—Miss Carrie Baker wrested a shotgun from her father, C. M. Baker, and killed him at their home, six miles west of this place, today.

Miss Baker wanted to become the bride of a young man of whom her parent disapproved and a quarrel and the tragedy ensued.

According to the girl her father had threatened to kill her rather than to permit her to marry against his wishes, and it was only a question when he succeeded in shooting first, she said.

At the time of the tragedy the girl's little sisters and brothers were asleep in the home.

Miss Baker refused to disclose the name of the man over whom the trouble between them started.

END AERIAL HONEYMOON

LONDON, July 8.—Claude Grahame-White and his wife, formerly Miss Dorothy Taylor of New York, who have been spending their honeymoon in France, returned to England yesterday by aeroplane.

While the P. O. E. is the direct outcome of a small social club of New York known as the Jolly Cocks, which was made up principally of theatrical people, banded together for mutual benefit and in opposition to sumptuary laws, today it is a cosmopolitan order and has in it some of the most staid and conservative men in the country.

Its membership is growing rapidly, and the latest report indicated that the 100,000 mark soon will be reached. It is now dead.

Miss Coffin is to remain here, while the multifariousness will pass much of his time elsewhere, looking after his interests. He will establish in Los Angeles a girls' industrial farm and agricultural college, of which the adopted young woman is to take direct charge.

She is an experienced settlement worker, author and magazine editor, and the daughter of the late Senator Murray of Iowa, a friend of Coffin.

ELKS NATIONAL CONVENTION

By FREDERIC J. HASKIN.

The annual convention of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks now is being held in Portland, Ore. Elks from every part of the United States have migrated to the land of the setting sun for this big event, some traveling in magnificent Pullman special trains, and others going at a time but all bent on having one of the most enthusiastic meetings in the history of the order. And as for the convention city, all hands testify that no bet has been overlooked that will make the Elks of the country always carry a warm spot in their hearts for the hospitality of that north Pacific metropolis.

Many matters of importance to Elks will be brought before the convention. One of these is the problem of a national home for the order. There is a fund of $100,000 in the hands of August Hermann of Cincinnati, who is also the head of the national baseball commission, for the purpose of starting some new building operations at

JULY MOTORIST TELLS OF SPRINGS CARNIVAL

Colorado in general and the Pikes Peak region in particular fired big in a publicity way in the July Motorist. This is a handsome magazine published at Omaha, Neb., devoted to motor touring interests. Its half tones are always attractive and the magazine is an authority in the west on good roads. One of the biggest articles in the number is spread over two pages and tells of the automobile features of the Summer Carnival to be held here the last week in August. The article is by H. S. Rogers, publicity manager of the carnival. Scattered throughout the pages of the magazine are a half dozen or more beautiful half-tone pictures of the Colorado roads that were contributed by Secretary Henderson of the Chamber of Commerce. Among them is one of the finest views of the Colorado Springs-Canon City road, including a view in South park, the Snowy range from Fairplay, a gang of convicts at work on a Colorado road, and the famous Ute Pass highway.

The publicity thus gained is in the direction to do a great deal of good for the Pikes Peak region.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our gratitude and heartfelt thanks to our many friends and neighbors, and especially the Hibbard employees, for their sympathy and kindness shown us during the illness and death of our beloved daughter and sister. Also for the beautiful floral offerings.

CONTRACT LET FOR DAM

Ord. & Swope yesterday were awarded by the city council the contract for the alterations to the dam of reservoir No. 2, the terms being $5 cents a yard for earthwork and $1 a yard for riprapping, or about $17,000 for the completed job. When completed the dam will be 10 feet higher than at present, increasing the storage capacity of the reservoir from 30,000,000 to 150,000,000 gallons, and will be practically water tight.

The ordinance creating improvement district No. 1 was passed on first reading at the meeting yesterday and was ordered printed. It provides for regrading, culms, parking and installation of gutters on the streets included in the district and in the paving district.

Would Make Grade
Crossings Safer

City Attorney McKesson is preparing an ordinance compelling the railroad to erect and maintain safety gates to protect all grade crossings and providing for alterations in the undercrossings of the Short Line and Rio Grande railroads on South Nevada avenue.

The grade crossings at present are said to be dangerous to both pedestrians and vehicles, and it is thought the erection of suitable gates would eliminate this. The two undercrossings on South Nevada avenue were never installed correctly, and as a result all motorists or pedestrians who use that thoroughfare are in danger. The avenue makes a turn at the point where the railroad tracks pass over it, and the two pairs of the crossings divide the already narrow street into two passages constructed so that it is impossible to see beyond them when approaching from the south.

RIO GRANDE HAS PLAN TO MAKE TRAVEL SAFER

The Denver & Rio Grande Railway company has a new plan for reducing accidents to a minimum on its system, which will affect both the employees and the public, and will create a feeling of greater safety.

The company has announced the organization of a central division and shop safety committees, and circulars containing instructions have been received by local employees of the company. All members of safety committees will wear neat buttons on their coat lapels, and each will be impressed with the responsibility and honor attached to their commission. Every six months the committees will be changed, and eventually every employee will have served on one of them at least.

The Rio Grande hopes that great interest will be shown by the railroad men. The duties of the committees are outlined in the following extract from the circular:

1. The primary duty is to be on the alert and constant lookout for anything which is liable to cause personal injury to a fellow worker, to a patron of the road, or to a trespasser; or which is liable to cause damage to the company's property.

2. To caution persons who consciously or unconsciously place themselves in a position of danger, and if immediate danger is imminent, to endeavor to rescue said persons from such danger.

3. To correct when it can be done without interfering with another's rights or jurisdiction, defects which may be discovered, for instance, throwing out of the way broken bottles, which may lie in the path of a yardman pursuing his duties at night, or turning down an upturned nail which is in a dangerous position.

4. To notify their chairman of cases of this kind, which may require fuller investigation or consideration by the proper officials.

Chairmen of subcommittees will bring urgent cases to the attention of division committees, who will arrange for the removal of the difficulty, if within their power, or will refer the question to the central safety committee, should it be deemed of sufficient importance to require attention by that body. Imperative cases should be handled by wire.

The following gentlemen have been named to act as the central safety committee: General attorney, chairman; superintendent motive power, general superintendent, Colorado lines; chief engineer, chief surgeon, claim agent, inspector of transportation.

Division Safety Committee—Superintendent, master mechanic, division engineer, trainmaster, supervisor, B. & O. roadmaster, traveling engineer, one conductor, one engineer, one fireman, one brakeman, one switchman, one agent.

Shop Safety Committee—Master mechanic, chairman; store department representative, boilermaker, machinist, blacksmith, car department representative.

Announcement

I wish to announce myself as a candidate subject to the Republican convention, for nomination for the office of Commissioner of El Paso county.

I came to Colorado Springs in the spring of 1887 and have been a resident of El Paso county since that time with the exception of two years which I spent in the western part of this state.

During these 19 years I have been connected with the Colorado Midland railroad; have been in business in both Colorado Springs and Colorado City, and served seven years in the police department of this city.

I acquired property in Colorado Springs and Colorado City when I first came and have since then been a taxpayer in El Paso county, with the exception of the two years before mentioned.

LION AND THE MOUSE SCORES AT THE BURNS

The old axiom, "there is charm in the figure three," is well demonstrated in the third offering by The Burns company in its rendition of "The Lion and the Mouse," unquestionably the best "first night" performance since the opening of the beautiful playhouse. This does not only mean that the staging is elaborate and the details have been carefully looked after, but that the respective roles as a whole were well enacted, and if there was a detractive feature, it may be charged entirely to the fact that this play has been seen during the regular theatrical season two or three times.

Clearly the honors are divided between "The Lion" and "The Mouse," the difficult role of "John Burdett Ryder," and Malcolm Duncan, the wilful son, "Jefferson Ryder." If Cross was clever as "Comte De Maigney" in "The Lily," and he was, he is decidedly so as the shrewd, calculating political financier, and that his work was thoroughly appreciated last evening is best evidenced by the applause which greeted his important scenes.

Mr. Duncan toured with the original company for two seasons, having appeared as "Jefferson Ryder" more than 1,000 times, and his pose and reading were delightfully pleasing.

Miss Wayne appeared in some beautiful gowns, and withal, made a winsome "Shirley Rossmore," who at times was deeply dramatic.

Richard Carlyle Americanized the "Hon. Fitzroy Bagley," the English private secretary, but otherwise gave a highly intelligent conception of the eccentric character.

As "Miss Nesbitt," Miss Alden was most acceptable in point of looks and portrayal. The remainder of the company did satisfactory work, and there is no good reason why "The Lion and the Mouse" will not prove one of the season's best drawing attractions. It continues for the remainder of the week, with matinee performances this afternoon and Saturday.

LESTER HAYWARD AND MISS MACK MARRIED

Lester Hayward, auditor of the Robinson Drug company, and Miss Helen Mack, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. NEW TONIC IS VERY SUCCESSFUL IN THIS COUNTRY

Overcomes Nervous Debility in a Remarkably Short Time.

NO EXCUSE FOR BEING RUN-DOWN

Many Are Astonished at Quick Results of "Tona Vita"

There is no excuse for being all "run down." If you feel tired most of the time with a poor appetite and bad digestion, you are debilitated and nature needs some assistance in throwing off this condition.

"Tona Vita," the modern tonic, is a sure means of overcoming this trouble. Many thousands of half sick, listless, nervous men and women, who lacked vitality and energy, have actually been made over by this splendid medicine.

"Tona Vita" was only recently introduced in this country, yet the sale of it is now tremendous and still growing. It is certain no medicine could be so successful unless it was accomplishing remarkable results. "Tona Vita" is accomplishing remarkable results. It overcomes nervous debility in a few weeks' time, and brings back the old energetic spirit that is lacking.

It brings restful sleep, good digestion, more vitality and drives away the listless, despondent feeling so quickly that it will positively astonish you. Don't drag around half sick any longer. Let "Tona Vita" build you up and restore your strength and vitality.

There is an agent in every city, who will return the purchase price to you if the tonic fails to completely build you up.

Lee's Rhubarb Laxative is the assistant remedy to be used with "Tona Vita" in cases of chronic constipation. This medicine contains the splendid medicinal virtues of rhubarb, the finest of all natural laxatives. Harsh drugs strain the intestines, while rhubarb, equally effective, has a tonic effect on the entire bowel tract. Lee's Rhubarb Laxative is an ideal family medicine and should be used in preference to any other laxative for children. The taste is very pleasant.

"Tona Vita" and Lee's Rhubarb Laxative are sold in Colorado Springs by the Robinson Drug Co.

POSTERS FOR SUMMER

CARNIVAL ARE FINISHED

The posters for the "Shan Kye" have been completed by the engravers, and are now ready for delivery. The poster is a half sheet, done in three colors, yellow, white and red, and is suitable for window hanging. At one side of the picture on the poster, an Indian is displayed, at the other a pioneer, while Pikes Peak forms the background. There is a floral automobile, filled with carnival masqueraders and Indians, in the picture, and two balloons are shown in mid-air. A great many of the posters have been printed. They will be sent out in a week or 10 days for general distribution over the western country.

"Heir to the Hoorah" at the Opera House. Western Comedy Drama With a Unique Charm

By E. L. C.

Everybody who witnessed "The Heir to the Hoorah" as presented by the Hawley company at the Opera House last night was enthusiastic over its unique charm. There is nothing in the line of western comedy to compare with it. Special pains have been taken in the production, which preserves that simple western charm, which has been so much admired by all. The play was promised as one big laugh from beginning to end, with one of the sweetest stories ever told. This was proved last night.

This is the first time "The Heir to the Hoorah" has been offered in stock west of Chicago, and its presentation at the Opera house this week will "put a feather in the management's cap." For a first night's performance the piece could not have been handled in a more pleasing manner. The entire cast is complete, with each member truly admirable in their characterizations.

Mr. Hawley is seen this week in what might be called "a different part," that of Joe Lacy, the wealthy western miner. We have seen Mr. Hawley in eight comedy roles since the opening in May. The part of Joe Lacy is straight dramatic work, which he handles in an admirable manner. The audience was more than pleased with his work.

Miss Shirley, as Mrs. Joe Lacy, has a rather short role, but her clever, artistic work and sweetness made up for the scarcity of lines. Miss Knorr, Miss Gilbert and Miss Stein are happily cast, and their work would do credit to many stock organizations. James Guy-Usher, J. C. Castleman and Lou Sears are "one big hit" in the roles of bashful westerners. J. C. Shumway and Joe C. Berry, as easterners who are west for the first time, keep "things humming" with the western miners. The entire supporting cast portray their parts as real artists. There are 15 speaking parts. With the or two members of the company to study on their parts will make a perfect production this week.

The scenic environment is in perfect accord with the western spirit, and the entire entertainment is natural and enjoyable.

shown "the gentle art of picking pockets" his meeting with Mr. Brownlow, and all that followed.

The makeup of the players is wonderful, and the scenery is an artistic study as far as the house is worth going to see.

The Princess has certainly secured a treasure in this film. The theater will doubtless be packed all day tomorrow, and tomorrow night, when the film is presented, it is certainly a commercial 10-strike for the house. It is the finest of more interesting moving pictures have ever been presented in Colorado. So says E. W. W. the great dramatic critic in the Denver Post. The Majestic theater has secured this great production for Tuesday, July 9, one day only. The prices are, adults 10 cents, children 5 cents. You should not fail to see this great production.

"QUINCY ADAMS SAWYER"
OPERA HOUSE, NEXT WEEK

The success of the book, "Quincy Adams Sawyer" and the play made from it, to be seen at the Opera house next week, becomes all the more interesting and remarkable when it is known that the author of the novel was the experiment of a young woman, Miss M. Clark, who made $50,000 in one year out of the venture. Her royalties from the play have already reached a very handsome figure.

The Hawley company will be well fast for the production.

BIG FEATURES AT THE ODEON
EVERY TUESDAY AND FRIDAY

This coming Tuesday, July 9, there will be three as follows:

"A Temporary Truce" is based on a very simple story, but the scenes are laid in rugged western surroundings. See the Pony Express Rider make a lightning change of horses. The typical western border town in full blast. The lady Mexican and her strange wife. The tenderfoot prospector who strikes it rich. The toughs who precipitate an Indian uprising. The strange Navajo burial ceremonies. The exciting and bloodless duel between tenderfoot and Mexican. The Indian massacre. The alarm in the village when men dropped their picks and grabbed their guns. The frightfully exciting battle between whites and reds and the happy ending in peace. With a comedy laugh scattered through the whole show.

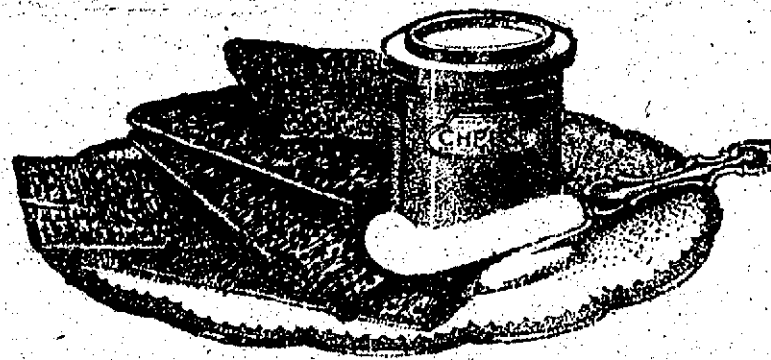

Vanman alrship disaster at Atlantic City last Monday. Giant dirigible that was built to cross the ocean exploded in midair and five people dashed to death in the ocean.

We will have one reel showing the monster in preparation for the trial trip. The mechanics and the Vanman at work. The start from the earth. Sailing through the blue sky toward Brigantine Beach. The wreck in the waves. Searching for victims. Recovering portions of the aerial car. Crowds on the beach and Atlantic City board walk. Everything but the actual explosion which was too high in the air to be photographed.

Most exciting picture ever made. Hot from the box of the daily papers and an item of profound interest, and then there's "A Man in the Making" four reels in all.

SPECIAL FEATURES FOR THE LADIES AT ZOO WEDNESDAY AND SATURDAY

Perhaps the most popular of the many attractions at the Zoo this year is the bathing beach. This is evidenced by the many people who daily indulge in a plunge in this refreshing pool. Mr. Crocker has arranged to admit all ladies free to the beach on Wednesday, July 10, and a treat to the musical camp on Saturday, July 13. Large crowds are expected.

The Tippy, Tasty Toast

Food science has taught us that there is much body-building nutriment in the whole wheat grain which we do not get in white flour. The only question is how to make the whole wheat grain digestible. That problem has been solved in the making of the shredded whole wheat wafer. It is the whole wheat, steam-cooked shredded, compressed into a wafer, and baked—the maximum of nutriment in smallest bulk. Many people prefer it to ordinary bread toast. Heated in the oven to restore its crispness it is delicious for luncheon, or for any meal, with butter, potted cheese or marmalades.

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, 77, MURRAY STREET, NEW YORK CITY.

Ten years ago the Frenchman was still supposed to be physically and morally incapable of learning to fight like a Christian. To quote the quaint phrase used by a worthy of the old prize ring, and when a little later, boxing began to be cultivated in Paris it was considered a disgraceful thing to contemplate the "product" of the new cult with plucked amusement and amazement. The characteristic qualities of the successful fencer—fine footwork, accurate timing, the ability to judge distance, the harmony of hand and eye and a reserve of muscular energy—are equally valuable in the modern game of boxing, which is the compact physique of the round-headed French athlete and the unquarable courage obviously provided him with the capacity of withstanding punishment.

It was soon evident that the deficiencies of the first French boxers were merely the result of a lack of scientific training. As to their possession of the physical and moral stamina there is really no such thing as merely physical courage, known as a "batton spirit" to the old-fashioned pugilists; there was no doubt whatever. Ten years ago the Frenchman was still supposed to be physically and morally incapable of learning to fight like a Christian. To quote the quaint phrase used by a worthy of the old prize ring, and when a little later he was borne to his death in the Bois de Vincennes, it required a knock-out to extinguish the snail which they were entering the ring.

American boxers' invasion of Paris provided the sports-fighting required, and the result is seen today in the numerous "diamonds" of the Bois de Vincennes.

It was possible for the foreigner, either by accident or by design, to contemplate the first product of the new cult with untinged amusement and amazement. Yet there was no reason in the nature of things why a race which had always excelled in the art of the sword should not also distinguish itself in the ring. The characteristic qualities of the sword-fencer—fine footwork, accurate timing, the ability to judge distance, the harmony of hand and eye and a reserve of nervous energy—are equally valuable in the modern game of boxing, which is the exacted phase of the round-headed French athlete and the more quotable boxer, obviously provided him with the capacity of withstanding punishment.

It was soon evident that the techniques of the first French boxers were merely the result of a lack of scientific training. As to their possession of the physical and moral stamina there is really no such thing as merely physical courage, known as a "batton spirit" to the old-fashioned pugilists; there was no doubt whatever. They could endure an intolerable deal of rounding, and they were probably a good deal better than the English pugilists whose speed-kniping French pugilists whose style is in vogue with the French, Scotch and English boxers. A few of them adopt the so-called American cross, when, as the animals of the old prize ring clearly show, is actually of English origin. But the best of them can only be called "Americanized" in the sense that they attend in two phases, paying less attention to an opponent's body and to his head, whereas the point of the chin is the effective objective of attack with nearly all English boxers. All or nearly all of them are of the French type.

There is no striking proof that the French style is superior in an essential point, which is too often ignored by English teachers of boxing. The faculty of timing, hand is not an inextinguishable gift of the gods, it is the result of proper balancing of the body, which admits of the constant use of leg drive, which counts for as much in boxing as in rowing.

MISS SUTTON LOSES TO

MISS DODD BY DEFAULT

CINCINNATI, July 8.—With the games standing 1 to 0 in favor of Miss May Sutton of California over Miss Marjorie Dodd of this city, rain today interfered with the playing of the championship round in the ladies' singles in the Tri-State Tennis tournament. Because of Miss Sutton's inability to remain longer in Cincinnati, the two sets and match were awarded to Miss Dodd tonight by default, thus giving her the second leg of the championship cup. Miss Sutton left immediately for Louisville to fulfill other tennis engagements. Miss Brown of Los Angeles and Miss Moys of Canada won the finals in the ladies' doubles by defeating Miss Sutton and Mrs. Touchard of New York. Score, 6-3, 4-3.

between the box and tube, and since cardboard is harder than rubber, the tubes will inevitably be injured. Covers for inner tubes should take the form of bags which will fit snugly around the tube.

CHICAGO, July 5.—At Palzer, heavy-weight white horse pugilist, is anxious to meet Jack Johnson in a four-round bout. Labor day. He talked with Johnson for an hour in regard to the match today. The champion said he would meet Palzer for a $30,000 purse or a side bet of equal size, either for a finish fight or any number of rounds. He is anxious to meet Luther McCarry on July 15, in a five-round fight, and unless he gets a good guarantee he declares he will call off the bull.

not Doubt What Has Been Twice Proved.

In gratitude for complete relief fromaches and pains of bad backs—from distressing kidney ills—thousands have publicly recommended Doan's Kidney Pills. Residents of Colorado Springs will so testify. Their case may add their cures were permanent. This testimony doubly proves the worth of Doan's Kidney Pills to Colorado Springs kidney sufferers.

Humors get into the blood usually because of an inactive condition of the system. Those members whose duty it is to expel all refuse matter do not properly perform their work, and an unhealthy accumulation is absorbed into the blood. Then instead of performing its natural function of nourishing the skin, the circulation irritates and inflames it because of its impure condition. A thorough cleansing of the blood is the only certain cure for any skin disease; external applications can only give temporary relief. S. S. S. goes into the circulation and drives all humors from the blood, and in this way makes a permanent and complete cure in every form of skin trouble. S. S. S. supplies the blood with the nutritive qualities necessary to sustain the skin and preserve its natural texture and perfect appearance. S. S. S. cures Eczema, Acne, Tetter, Salt Rheum, and all other skin eruptions or diseases. Book on Skin Diseases and any medical advice free.

CHICAGO MARKET

CHICAGO, July 8.—Although selling today caused wheat prices to break more than 2 cents, the market later recovered much of the loss. Closing figures were firm at 1.40 to 1.42 1/2 under Saturday. Most selling came from profit-taking buyers, who were considerably in a similar unloading process last week.

NEW YORK MARKET

NEW YORK, July 8.—Last week's poor bank statement, which uncovered a much larger loss of cash than was expected, and the general feeling of uneasiness in the money market, combined to produce a weak and feverish stock market today.

In 1898

A bicycle was a luxury. Today it is a necessity. You paid $100.00 in 1898 and no installment. Now it's $20.00 with $5.00 down and $1.00 a week. You never feel it; the operation is painless.

In 1898 such a plan would have very small attraction; now it's an inducement. The smallest boy can have the best wheel made, and pay for it himself.

Every tenth man is born lucky. Maybe you're it. Ask about the new and easy plan of getting a wheel. There's no harm in asking, and we'll be glad to explain in full to everyone, old and young alike.

To Have Perfect Skin Throughout the Summer

(From the Guide to Beauty.) These days the face, neck, arms and hands need special care and attention. Flying dust and dirt, the beating sun, are severe on any skin. Their despoiling effects are best overcome by the application of pure mercolized wax. This keeps skin and pores in a clean condition, the complexion beautifully white and spotless. Tan, freckles, blotches and roughened cuticle are actually absorbed by it. One ounce of mercolized wax, obtainable at any drug store, is sufficient to completely remove a soiled complexion. It is used like cold cream, allowed to remain on over night, and washed off in the morning. As the skin tends to expand in warm weather, cheeks and chin to sag and wrinkles to form, a good astringent lotion should be used. Dissolve one ounce powdered sage in one-half pint witch hazel. Bathe the face in this morning or before going out for theater or social affairs. It is a remarkable skin tightener and wrinkle eraser.
